Submitted: September 6, 1996

Filed: September 16, 1996

Before WOLLMAN, BEAM, and HANSEN, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Leonard J. Richards brought this action under 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985, 1988, during his state criminal prosecution, seeking injunctive and declaratory relief. The district court¹ granted defendants' motions to dismiss and denied Richards's motion to amend his complaint to add, inter alia, a request for damages. We have carefully reviewed the record, including the parties' briefs, and conclude that the district court correctly dismissed the action and did not abuse its discretion in denying the motion to amend. Accordingly, we affirm the judgment of the district court. See 8th Cir. R. 47B. We also deny Richards's motions to supplement the record, as they concern issues presented in his amended complaint.

A true copy.

Attest:

CLERK, U.S. COURT OF APPEALS, EIGHTH CIRCUIT.

¹The Honorable Paul A. Magnuson, Chief Judge, United States District Court for the District of Minnesota.
